

Housing and Neighbourhood Character Strategy: Castlemaine, Campbells Creek and Chewton

HOW CAN YOU BE INVOLVED?

We are currently undertaking consultation on the Issues and Opportunities Paper from Monday 12 September – Friday 14 October 2022. See below for details.

We will be at the Castlemaine Farmers Market on Wednesday 14 September.

How can you provide feedback?

- Having a conversation with us at the drop-in sessions:
 - Castlemaine:
 - We will be at the Castlemaine Farmers Market on two dates:
 - Wednesday 14 September
 - Wednesday 12 October
 - Between 4-6pm on Wednesday 5 October in the Ray Bradfield Room, Frederick Street Castlemaine.
 - Campbells Creek:
 - Between 4-6pm on Monday 3 October at the Campbells Creek Community Centre
 - Chewton:
 - Between 4-6pm on Monday 10 October at the Chewton Town Hall
- Online, via the project's Shape page
- If you are interested in a targeted workshop, please register for this via the Shape page
- Via email/phone call (see the Shape page for contact details)

How will your feedback be used?

- Feedback sought on the Issues and Opportunities Paper now will be used to help inform the preparation of the draft Strategy
- Feedback sought on the draft Strategy will help to inform the finalisation of the Strategy

When are the opportunities to provide feedback on this project?

Feedback will be sought from the community and key stakeholders at two key stages:

- Consultation on the Issues and Opportunities Paper (current consultation)
- Consultation on the draft Housing and Neighbourhood Character Strategy (late 2023)
- Public exhibition (including consultation period) during the planning scheme amendment process which will seek to implement the findings and recommendations of the Strategy (mid-2024 onwards).

Keep an eye on the project's Shape Page for updates over the coming weeks and months.

Working together for a healthy, connected shire